Ready to take the exam?

Preparing to take the exam

Before registering, be sure to review the Requirements, Exam Content and FAQs for the Associate Android Developer exam located here.

Registering and entering ID and payment information

After you accept Terms and Conditions, you will purchase the exam, log in with a Google Account (if you do not have one, you will be able to create one during the login process), upload your picture ID (such as a driver's license or passport), and provide payment information. The exam is priced at $149 USD.

Prepare for the exam

After payment and ID verification, you will proceed to Android Studio and install the custom Google Developers Certification plugin. Once you have installed the plugin and signed in with the account you used in the previous step, you will begin the exam. Detailed instructions will be provided before you start the exam.

© 2021 TrueAbility, Inc. Security

Take the exam

After you download the plugin and sign in, your exam will be provided to you. You will have a maximum of eight hours to complete the exam. If you have not completed the exam after eight hours it will be auto-submitted for you.

Submit the exam

Once your exam has been submitted, you may take a short break and then you will need to complete a 10-15 minute video "exit interview." This exit interview will require you to have a working webcam and microphone and will be recorded for grading purposes.

★ Note: If you do not complete your exam within 8 hours and your exit interview within the allotted time, your submission will be auto-failed and you will be required to pay again to take the exam.

Receive your certification

After you have submitted your exam and completed your exit interview, it will be available for grading. Your exam will be graded using a combination of machine and human grading and will take up to 45 days. You will be notified when grading has been completed and may review the status of your submission on your Candidate Portal.

Identity verification

To upload your images

1. Select the type of ID to use.
2. Select the upload method to use:
 - Select Upload if you are using a smartphone, or to upload a file that you scanned earlier.
 - Select Camera to use your computer's webcam.
3. Once you are satisfied with the image you have uploaded, click Next to proceed to the next image, or Finish to submit your documents for verification.

Make sure not to cover your ID with your fingers, and that the corners of your ID are included in the photo.

Driver's licenses and two-sided IDs

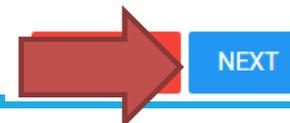

For double-sided IDs, such as a driver's license, you must scan both sides. Be sure to include the card's edges in both images.

Passports

For single-sided IDs, such as a passport, please ensure that the picture, your name and other information on the page is clearly shown in the image.

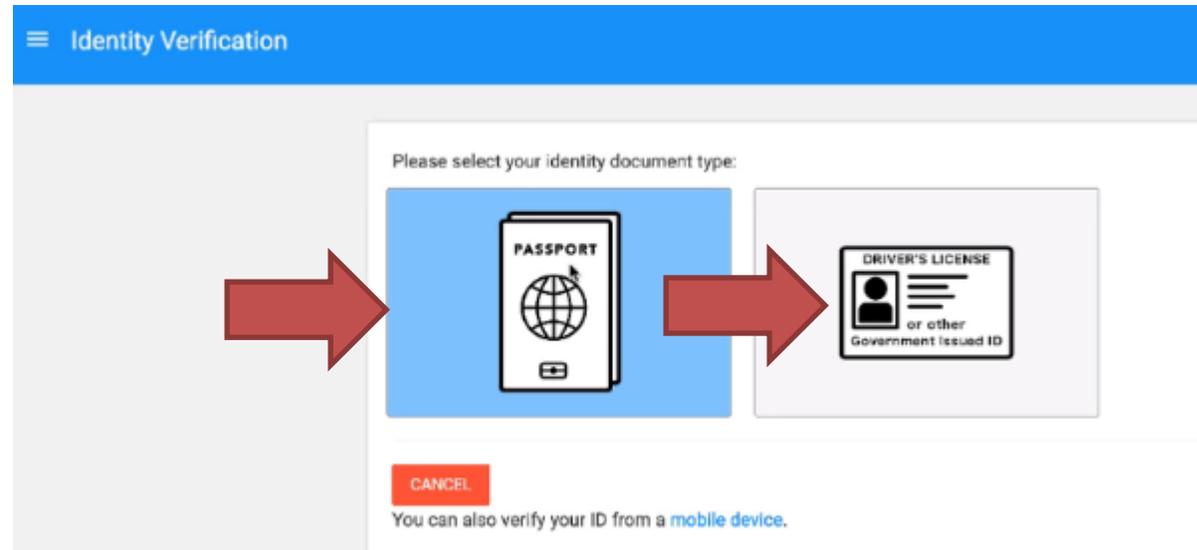

File uploaded from your device

You can submit jpg, bmp, png files that are stored on your device. Note that the minimum file size is 400kb and the maximum file size is 4mb.

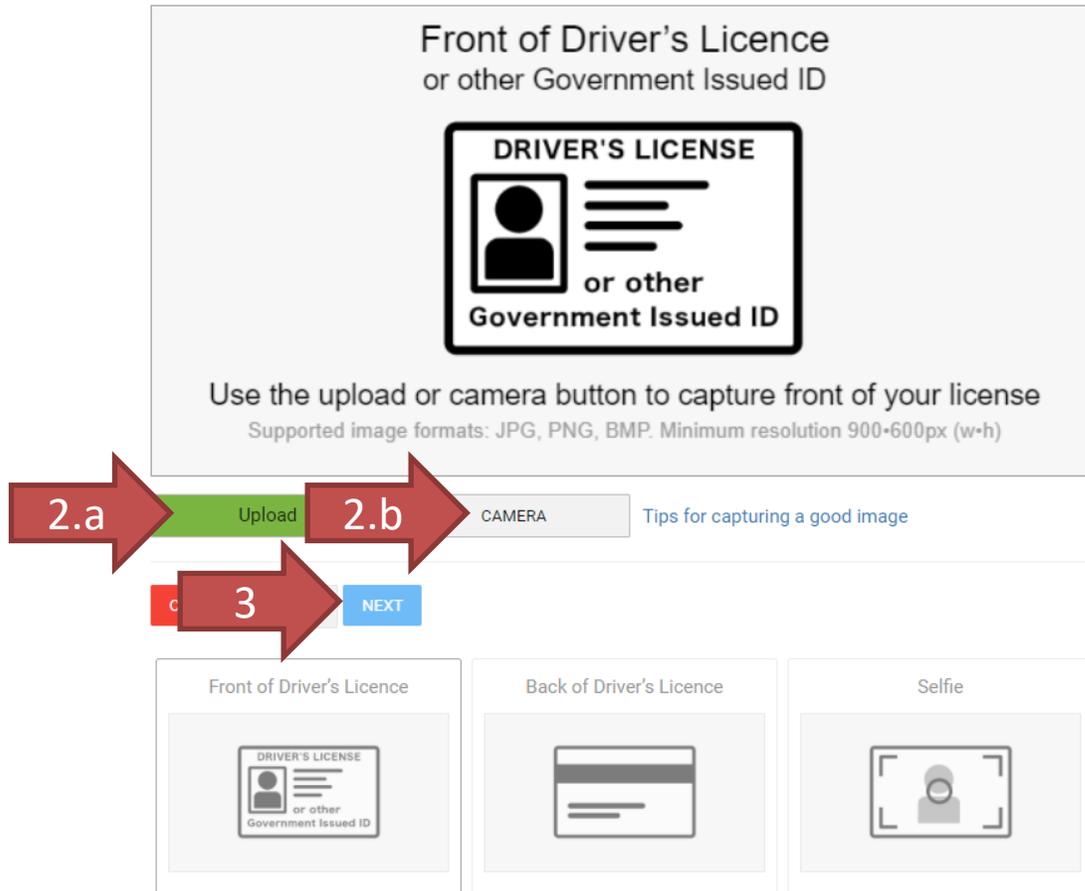

Identity verification ...

1. You must be able to present government-issued photo identification from a non-embargoed country. (See "U.S.-embargoed countries," below.) For Canada, United States, France, United Kingdom, Ireland, Netherlands, and Switzerland, you may use a driver's license. For all other countries you must provide a current passport.
2. You will scan and upload a photo of your ID using your webcam, or you will upload a copy of your ID that you've previously scanned in JPG, PNG, or BMP format.

Identity verification: Register your ID and selfie

To upload your images

1. Select the type of ID to use.
2. Select the upload method to use:
 - a) Select Upload if you are using a smartphone, or to upload a file that you scanned earlier.
 - b) Select Camera to use your computer's webcam.
3. Once you are satisfied with the image you have uploaded, click Next to proceed to the next image, or Finish to submit your documents for verification.

Make sure not to cover your ID with your fingers, and that the corners of your ID are included in the photo.

4. Google and/or its subcontractor(s) will monitor my Exam attempt(s) and collect and store related data, which will only be used for purposes of the Program, including but not limited to cheat detection and Program improvement. All information collected from me for purposes of the Program will be subject to Google's Privacy Policy, which is available at [https://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/].
5. If I participate in an Exit Interview, Google and/or its subcontractor(s) will record and store my video responses to the Exit Interview questions, which Google will only use for purposes of the Program. I hereby consent and grant Google and its subcontractor(s) the right to record my Exit Interview, including, but not limited to, my name, likeness, voice, and statements (collectively, my "Likeness"), for purposes of the Program. All such recordings are owned by Google. I hereby grant Google and its subcontractor(s) a royalty-free, perpetual, worldwide license to any copyrights, rights of publicity, and any other legal rights necessary in order for them to use my Likeness for purposes of the Program. I warrant that I have the authority and all rights necessary to grant this license and permission on behalf of myself and my employer (if applicable, to the extent that my employer's permission, acknowledgment, or consent is required). I acknowledge and agree that I will not be compensated (nor will my employer, if applicable) for use of my Likeness. I also waive (and with respect to my employer, if applicable) any moral rights that I might have in my Likeness.
6. Participating in the Program and/or obtaining this Certification are neither endorsements of my employability nor guarantees of my future work or performance. I do not have a partnership, employer/employee, agency, or joint venture relationship with Google by participating in the Program. By participating in the Program, I will not be entitled to any compensation, options, stock or other rights or benefits accorded to Google employees, and I waive any right to them and promise never to claim them.
7. Google complies with the U.S. government's list of embargoed countries. The current embargoed country list includes Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria and Crimea. As such, if I am unable to present approved identification showing residence in a non-embargoed country, I will not be permitted to participate in the Program.
8. Google reserves the right to modify the Certification Process and these Terms from time to time. Google will notify me of any material change to the Certification Process or to these Terms, which will become effective 30 days after such notice. If I do not agree to such changes, within 30 days of being notified of such changes, I will provide Google with written notice to terminate my participation in the Program. I may terminate my participation in the Program at any time upon written notice to Google. Upon written notice to me, Google may terminate my participation in the Program at any time without liability to me if I, in Google's sole discretion, fail to adhere to the Certification Code of Ethics described in Section 1 of these Terms. Upon any termination, I will cease all use of the Program.
9. If awarded a Certification, I understand and agree to the following:
 - a. Google will include me in a public directory listing and/or a social community of Google Developer Certification holders.
 - b. In order to maintain my Certification status for each Certification I hold, I will need to recertify once every three (3) years starting from the applicable Certification date, and Google has no obligation to remind me of such a recertification deadline. Future Exams will reflect then-current development standards and practices, and I agree to be responsible for staying current and informed on relevant advancements in order to pass an Exam.
 - c. I may be asked to participate in a survey to help improve the Program.

I have read and understand the Terms and Conditions of the Program and I agree to accept the Terms and Conditions of the Program.
